Confessions For Revival and Spiritual Sensitivity

I confess that I set the Lord continually before me; therefore, my eyes are single and turned away from beholding vanity. I am quickened in the ways of the Lord and sensitive to His divine movements in my life. I declare that my Kronos align with Kairos.

I declare that the Spirit of God is poured out upon me, transforming every wilderness in my life into a fruitful field. Revival flows through my life—I have eyes that see, ears that hear and a heart filled with understanding. My heart receives divine instruction in the night seasons and I am filled with heavenly counsel.

I declare in the name of Jesus that I am filled with the knowledge of His will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding. I experience Yahweh's wraparound presence every moment of my day. With the Holy Spirit dwelling within me, I am quickened to walk in His statutes and precepts.

The Spirit of grace and supplication rests upon me, granting me fortitude in studying of the Word, in prayer and fasting this year. The Spirit of the Lord rests on me—the Spirit of wisdom, understanding, counsel, might, knowledge, and reverence for the Lord.

This year, I walk in greater sensitivity to the Spirit and deeper dimensions of God's mysteries. The eyes of my understanding are enlightened, and I know the hope to which Christ has called me. I walk boldly in that hope.

I declare that my eyes are blessed for they see and my ears for they hear. My eyes are opened, and I behold wondrous things out of His law. I declare that I step into the reality of all that is available for me in God and the supernatural is my natural habitat.

All these I confess in Jesus name. Amen.

For assuredly, I say to you, whoever says to this mountain, 'Be removed and be cast into the sea,' and does not doubt in his heart, but believes that those things he says will be done, he will have whatever he says. – Mark 11:23.
